Ad?le : A Novel

by Slimani, Leila

FP 125,000. From the bestselling author of PERFECT NANNY. Adele appears to have the perfect life: She is a successful journalist in Paris who lives in a beautiful apartment with her surgeon husband and their young son. But underneath the surface, she is bored - and consumed by an insatiable need for sex. Driven less by pleasure than compulsion, she organizes her day around her extramarital affairs, arriving late to work and lying to her husband, until she becomes ensnared in a trap of her own making. Suspenseful, erotic, and electrically charged, ADELE is a captivating exploration of addiction, sexuality, and one woman's quest to feel alive.

At the Mountain's Edge

by Graham, Genevieve

FP 10,000(CDN) A sweeping new historical novel of love, tragedy, and redemption set during the height of the Klondike Gold Rush. In 1897, the discovery of gold in the desolate reaches of the Yukon has thousands of prospectors swarm to the north seeking riches. For Liza Peterson and her family, it is a chance for them to make a fortune by moving their general store business from Vancouver to Dawson City. For Constable Ben Turner, a recent recruit of the North-West Mounted Police, upholding the law in a place overrun with guns, liquor, prostitutes, and thieves is an opportunity to escape a dark past. But the long, difficult journey over icy mountain passes and whitewater rapids is much more treacherous than Liza or Ben imagined. Canadian author - Halifax

Autopsy of a Boring Wife

by Lavoie, Marie-Renée

Like a Québécois BRIDGET JONES'S DIARY, Marie-Renée Lavoie tells the hysterically funny and ultimately touching tale of 48-year-old Diane, a woman whose husband is having an affair because, he says, she bores him. Diane takes the charge to heart and undertakes an often ribald, highly entertaining journey to restoring trust in herself and others that is at the same time an astute commentary on women and girls, gender differences, and the curious institution of marriage in the 21st century. All the details are up for scrutiny in this tender, brisk story of the path to recovery.

Bina : A Novel in Warnings

by Schofield, Anakana

FP 10,000(CDN) The mind-blowing new novel from a blazingly talented writer whose last book, MARTIN JOHN, was shortlisted for the Giller Prize. “My name is Bina and I’m a very busy woman. That’s Bye-na, not Beena. I don’t know who Beena is but I expect she’s having a happy life. And I don’t know who you are, or the state of your life. But if you’ve come this way to listen to me, your life will undoubtedly get worse. I’m here to warn you...” Bina, a bracingly plain-spoken older Irishwoman who, we gradually learn, is under police surveillance for a crime considered so unspeakable and incendiary that she cannot refer to it directly upon threat of immediate arrest. Binding : A Novel

by Collins, Bridget

FP 100,000. An unforgettable novel of enchantment, mystery, memory, and forbidden love, BINDING is a beautiful homage to the allure and life-changing power of books - and a reminder to us all that knowledge can be its own kind of magic. Young Emmett Farmer is working in the fields when a strange letter arrives summoning him away from his family. He is to begin an apprenticeship as a Bookbinder - a vocation that arouses fear, superstition, and prejudice amongst their small community, but one neither he nor his parents can afford to refuse. For as long as he can recall, Emmett has been drawn to books, even though they are strictly forbidden. Bookbinding is a sacred calling, Seredith informs her new apprentice, and he is a binder born.

Gingerbread

by Oyeyemi, Helen

FP 10,000(CDN) The prize-winning, bestselling author of BOY, SNOW, BIRD returns with a bewitching and inventive novel. Influenced by the mysterious place gingerbread holds in classic children’s stories beloved novelist Helen Oyeyemi invites readers into a delightful tale of a surprising family legacy, in which the inheritance is a recipe. Perdita Lee may appear your average British schoolgirl; Harriet Lee may seem just a working mother trying to penetrate the school social hierarchy; but there are signs that they might not be as normal as they think they are. For one thing, they share a gold-painted, 7th-floor walk-up apartment with some surprisingly verbal vegetation.

Perfect Alibi

by Margolin, Phillip

FP 100,000. The master of the legal thriller returns with one of his twistiest, most compelling crime novels yet. A young woman accuses a prominent local college athlete of rape. Convicted with the help of undisputable DNA evidence, the athlete swears his innocence and threatens both his lawyer and his accuser as he's sent to prison. Not long after, there's another rape and the DNA test shows that the same person committed both rapes. Which is seemingly impossible since the man convicted of the first rape was in prison at the time of the second one. Now the convicted athlete - with a new lawyer - is granted a new trial and bail. Shortly thereafter, his original lawyer disappears and his law partner is murdered. Also available UAB/CD

The mother - Sarah - pours her heart into seven letters, one for every word. Five months into her pregnancy Sarah collapses and the beautiful life she dreamt of turns into a nightmare. With Sarah's future, and the future of her pregnancy, in their hands, her husband and sister fiercely disagree about what the doctors should do. And the crisis reveals devastating fault-lines in the lives of the entire family. All the time the clock is ticking. The medics need a decision. Can her family get beyond the fog of grief and anger to figure out what's for the best?

Someone Knows

by Scottoline, Lisa

FP 300,000. A pulse-pounding domestic thriller about a group of friends who have been bound by a single secret - and will now be undone by it. Twenty years ago, in an upscale suburb of Philadelphia, four teenagers spent a summer as closest friends: drinking, sharing secrets, testing boundaries. When a new boy looked to join them, they decided to pull a prank on him, convincing him to play Russian roulette as an initiation into their group. They secretly planned to leave the gun unloaded - but what happened next would change each of them forever. The guilt drove them apart. But after one of the group apparently commits suicide with a gun, their old secrets come roaring back. Also available UAB/CD & LP

Unto Us a Son Is Given

by Leon, Donna

Brunetti Mystery #28, following TEMPTATION OF FORGIVENESS. Count Falier is urging his Venetian son-in-law to investigate, and preferably intervene in, the seemingly innocent plan of the Count's best friend, the elderly Gonzalo Rodríguez de Tejada, to adopt a much younger man as his son. Under Italian inheritance laws this man would then be heir to Gonzalo's entire fortune, a prospect Gonzalo's friends find appalling. For his part, Brunetti wonders why the old man, a close family friend, can't be allowed his pleasure in peace. And yet, what seems innocent on the surface can cause tsunamis beneath. Gonzalo unexpectedly, and literally, drops dead on the street, and one of his friends just arrived in Venice for the memorial, is strangled in her hotel room.
